

The Black Heritage Festival

February 13, 2010 3rd Annual

General Information

The Black Heritage Festival

Hosted by the Black Student Union

University of Baltimore

February 13, 2010 12:00pm-5:30pm

The event is free and open to the public and child friendly.

Food, fun, fashion, and performances in dance, poetry and music. Free book drive and face painting for children.

Theme: The Evolution of Black and African American Culture

The Black Student Union
University of Baltimore Student Center
21 W. Mount Royal Ave
Baltimore, MD 21201

Contact Information

Jay Wilson

(443)416-0966

jamille.wilson@ubalt.edu

If no answer please leave a detail message explaining your participation with your name and number

Performances

Performers fill on a day to day basis. It is stressed that all participants turn in fees and applications well before the deadline February 10, 2010.

All performers are ensured a 15 minutes slot.

Time slots are from 1:00pm to 5:00pm

Performance slots are free. Performers who wish the hold vender booth are ask to pay a $50 fee which includes a table and 2 chairs in designated locations. Locations with electrical outlets are limited and are distributed on a first come first serve basis.

No vulgar our profanity language is permitted as this is a family friendly event.

All music must be preset on a CD-ROM for easy organization.

All fees can delivered in person by request or by mail at the above address. Cash and both Personal and Certified check are accepted. All Checks must be cleared before February 12, 2010 for participation.

Performers are asked to be present two hours before actual performance time.

Venders

Venders fill on a day to day basis. It is stressed that all participants turn in fees and applications well before the delaine February 2, 2010. Electrical outlet are limited and are distributed on a first come first serve basis.

Selling Vender Fee $50 (Participant does have the option to donate a product to decrease the fee to $40)
Information Vender Fee $40

All tables must be fully covered with table cloths. Participant can bring materials for setup and design.

Please notify event coordinator of items in advance.

Vender locations are spread through the 1st, 2nd, 4th, and 5th floors.

Venders are supplied 1 table and 2 chairs.

All fees can delivered in person by request or by mail at the above address. Cash and both Personal and Certified check are accepted. All Checks must be cleared before February 12, 2010 for participation.

Venders can start set up promptly at 8:00pm February 13, 2010

Sponsors

Sponsorship deadline is February 10, 2010. It is stressed that all participants turn in fees and applications well before the deadline February 10, 2010.

Potential sponsors can support through materials, monetary, or promotional donations. Their contribution will be expressed on flyers if contributions meet before flyer distribution deadlines. All sponsors can provide logos, posters, or any other promotional ads to show at the event.

Sponsors who wish to hold vendor booths will be handled accordingly depending on type of contributions. Sponsors can set ads and promotional items promptly at 8:00pm.

Volunteer

Any person from the organization, university, or public can aid in the organization of the event as door greeters, floor supervisors, informers, register personnel, or setup helpers. Remember, volunteer work such as this is valid for hours for service learning and a resume enhancement.

All volunteers are to be present at 8:00pm February 13, 2010.